NOTICE CONCERNING SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE AND MEDIATION

This Honorable Court has directed the counsel for all parties to conduct a good faith settlement and evaluation as to whether mediation would be beneficial. This Court further directed that Plaintiff's counsel to prepare and file notice to doing the same. Defendants' counsel has reminded the Plaintiff's counsel to do so and yet it has not been done. In abundance of caution, Defendants' counsel files this notice.

A settlement conference was conducted by the counsel of all parties on June 8, 2006. Settlement was not reached at this conference. The parties do not believe that mediation will assist them in resolving the case at the present time. If the parties later find that mediation may be helpful they will so notify the court.

Respectfully submitted,

Kim T. Thomas (THO115)
General Counsel
Assistant Attorney General
